Kamioka onsen HOZANSO Bijin Yu History

In the late 1950s a divine message had been sent to a man that there was hot spring water that could heal people and from this idea led to "tsuru nuru" hot springs being dug.

Professor Hatta of Kyushu University repeated clinical tests here and announced that the onsen water is one of a number of Beppu hot springs that was excellent in treating skin problems for atomic bomb victims. As a result of this announcement, the Beppu Atomic Bomb Center was established as a resort for those suffering from the after-effects of the atomic bombs.

This hot spring contains moisturizers such as silicic acid and water-soluble silica, useful for its anti-aging properties. Among the other mildly acidic spring water found in Beppu, the water quality at Hozanso is of a rare alkaline sulfur spring, making up only 20% of artesian springs. In order for the enjoyment of the purest hot springs, guest outdoor baths have water flowing directly from the source and never circulated, ensuring freshness.

This is about our hotel.

What's is "Jigoku mushi"?

Jigoku mushi is a traditional cooking method that uses steam from the hot spring to steam fresh and lightly salted ingredients such as vegetables or eggs for your enjoyment. This is a famous cuisine from Beppu, where hot spring steam is plentiful. The high-temperature steam cooks faster than boiling and concentrates the flavors of the natural ingredients to make them superbly delicious! In addition, absolutely no oil is used, cutting down any unnecessary fat, making this cuisine exceptionally healthy. You can bring your own ingredients, providing a safe option for families who have children with allergies. Please bring your favorite foods in a manner that makes them steamable (such as pre-cut ingredients).

Guests staying overnight can try the Jigoku mushi Experience for free!

Please post your Jigoku mushi experience on Instagram!

Kamioka onsen HOZANSO

Beppu is the number one onsen location to visit in Japan and boasts the largest amount of onsen springs and sources. There are ten kinds of minerals found in onsen water and in Beppu seven of the ten can be found here and there and is considered to be an onsen heaven.

Kamioka onsen Hozanso is a small inn that is close to Beppu IC, but a little far from Kannawa onsen and is also along Kyushu cross road. At Hozanso the onsen water is continuously flowing and never reused. The Onsen expert Saito Masaki said that "this onsen is one of the top three onsens that gives the skin a smooth and soft feeling after bathing. Heaven granted the onsen with additional benefits as well". The Onsen analyst Kyoko Kitade said that the oxygen bubbles don't disappear either in the water because of the thickness of the water. The Onsen experts have certified Hozanso onsen as a skin beauty onsen.

The onsen is known as a "sulfur spring" onsen and the water quality is an alkaline type with metasilicic acid, bicarbonate ion, sulfate ion minerals as well. The spring water has a thick and warm texture and collagen and hyaluronic acid are also contained in the water. When you are bathing, you will feel like you are surrounded by thick and warm lotion. The water is beneficial for the skin and will increase your skin's beauty as well. This onsen's facts about the high quality were spread by social media and Kyushu Jalan also stated that it is like lotion for the skin and is this type of onsen is number two ranked typed of onsen in Japan.

❑ Hozanso's popular cat Not only healing, but in fact the cat plays an important role too (Meow)

Currently, there are three cats that are symbols for the inn. From the left is Maro and the middle is the senior cat DoUra and the one on the right is Fuku. The cats are welcoming guests and responding to their needs with the utmost attention and care but not only that their main job is looking for mice. Please pet them!
